Tone Down Rights Bill, RFK Urges

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the House Judiciary Committee gave full support today to administration efforts to cut some provisions from the sweeping civil rights bill.

Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., told the committee he would do all in his power to get bipartisan support for the milder proposal recommended by the administration in June.

A judiciary subcommittee added several highly controversial provisions to the administration program, however, to produce the bill now before the committee.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy urged the committee Tuesday to restore the measure substantially to administration's recommendations.

Celler spoke as the committee prepared to question Kennedy further.

"The urgency for bipartisan legislation at this session is so strong that I intend to put aside my own feeling with respect to the desirability of provisions in addition to those recommended by the administration," Celler said.

Celler was chairman of the judiciary subcommittee that greatly expanded the original proposals.

He said he hoped the committee could produce a civil rights bill patterned on the original administration measure within two weeks.

Return of Bridie Murphy Is Predicted

By BOB LLOYD
PUEBLO Star-Journal Staff Writer
PUEBLO, Colo. (AP) — Remember Bridie Murphy?

Many people do, although whether this particular Bridie Murphy ever lived outside the dreams of a Colorado housewife under hypnosis is a matter for considerable argument.

Morey Bernstein, Pueblo businessman, student of parapsychology and author, insists she died. He said Bridie will be reborn again next year—in print.

Bernstein, who wrote "The Search for Bridie Murphy" nine years ago, said his new book will prove that Bridie was not a hoax and will supply new evidence for his contention that man's consciousness survives death.

Bernstein's long preoccupation with Bridie began in 1952 when a friend, Mrs. Hugh E. Tighe, agreed to a party to let him hypnotize her. Bernstein had been experimenting with hypnosis for 10 years before that.

While in deep hypnosis, Mrs. Tighe began describing in detail episodes in the life of Bridie Kathleen Murphy, including that she was born in Cork in 1789 and died in Belfast in 1964.

As she lay as though in sleep and talked, Mrs. Tighe's speech and mannerisms were those of an Irish girl of little education.

Bernstein wrote his book on the basis of this and later sessions with Mrs. Tighe, who appeared in the book as "Ruth Simmons."

He said the book was published in 30 countries with 205,000 hard-cover copies and 775,000 paperback copies. It was made into a movie.

Mrs. Tighe, who lives now in a Denver suburb with her husband and three daughters, made it clear she would just as soon forget all about Bridie Murphy.

She said she had nothing to do with hypnosis since the experiments with Bernstein during which, armed with a tape recorder, he hypnotized her six to eight times over a period of 11 months. Each time Mrs. Tighe assumed the role of Bridie Murphy.

Bernstein said his new book "will be a counterattack at all levels—the hoax matter, the so-called scientific charges, the psychiatrists."

Mirror's Last Edition in New York City

NEW YORK (AP)—The financially distressed New York Mirror has ceased publication after 39 years and some of its assets have been sold to the New York Daily News.

"It takes everything I've got to keep from crying," said John Hearst Jr., grandson of the Mirror's founder, the late William Randolph Hearst, when the morning newspaper's demise was announced Tuesday night.

"If we could have economized," added Hearst, associate editor of the Mirror, "we would have done it. Most holes have a bottom, but this one did not seem to have any."

The Mirror's last edition rolled off the presses at 2:17 a.m. today.

The death knell had been rung for months. The confirming announcement came at around 6 p.m.

Wilfred Alexander, president of the AFL-CIO American Newspaper Guild's New York local and shop steward of the union's Mirror unit, read the announcement to 75 editorial employees in the city room. He criticized what he termed the "callous and cold-blooded way this was kept from you."

About 1,400 employees lost their jobs. The Mirror said it will distribute in excess of 3½ million copies of its last edition.

FBI Takes 2 Jailed Here for Kidnap

Two men arrested here for investigation Monday were arraigned in U. S. Court at Texarkana today and bound over for grand jury action. They were listed as Robert Poiras, 23, and William Duprey, 24, both of Lowell, Mass.

The men were arrested by Officers Milam and Sinyard of the City Police after they tried to pawn some auto parts at two local garages. They were brought in for questioning by City and State Police. Two pistols were found in the car.

It developed that there were two federal warrants for them, one for kidnaping and one for auto theft. They were wanted for armed robbery in Massachusetts. In New York they kidnaped a man, released him near Alexandria, Va. but kept his car. They were also wanted for burglary of a store in New Hampshire.

Following a complete investigation they were released to FBI Agent John Martin and were given a preliminary hearing in Texarkana and bound over for U. S. Jury action.

Erhard has been economics minister throughout Adenauer's tenure as West Germany's only chancellor since the Federal Republic was created in 1949.

Adenauer made no secret that he felt Erhard incapable of filling his shoes. He retired at 27 only under extreme pressure from other leaders of his party.

Erhard has promised to follow Adenauer's basic foreign policies of support for the Western Alliance, demand for German reunification and reconciliation with France.

But he is expected to show less resistance to U. S. efforts to ease cold war tensions and to open up the European Common Market to trade with the rest of the free world. That will be the big difference.

Barring the unexpected, Erhard will serve the two years until the 1965 general election. But in that campaign he will face a tough battle trying to regain a Bundestag majority for the Christian Democrats.

Opinion polls show the Socialists have become the country's most popular party although Erhard personally is strongly approved by the voters.

Erich Mende, head of the Free Democrats, will succeed Erhard as vice chancellor and will replace Rainer Barzel, a Christian Democrat, as minister for all-German affairs.

Kurt Schmuck, of the Christian Democrats will become minister of economics.

This will leave the 21 Cabinet posts divided as before — 16 Christian Democrats to five Free Democrats.

The religious balance in the Cabinet is also maintained at 11 Protestants to 10 Catholics. Erhard is a Protestant and Adenauer a Catholic. Religion plays a big role in West German politics just below the surface.

Drought, Fires Continue to Plague Nation

CHICAGO (AP) — Drought and woodland fires continued to plague many parts of the nation today.

Drought conditions in some areas in the eastern half of the nation appeared near the critical stage. Hundreds of fires burned in the tinder-dry forestlands in the Northeast and Midwest sections.

Summer's lush green pasture lands in much of the Western rangelands and in other areas were dry and brittle. Hay shortages were reported. There was a heavy decline in feed for livestock. Milk production sagged. Marketing of cattle was higher than normal for the season.

Water levels on most of the Great Lakes and many major rivers and streams were below seasonal levels. Water shortages developed in some communities and restrictions were ordered.

Erhard New Chancellor of Germany

By CARL HARTMAN
Associated Press Staff Writer
BONN, Germany (AP) — Ludwig Erhard, who directed West Germany's miraculous postwar economic recovery, was elected chancellor today to succeed Konrad Adenauer.

West Germany's lower house, the Bundestag, voted 279-180 to elevate the 66-year-old Erhard to the top government spot left vacant by Adenauer's reluctant retirement Tuesday. There were 24 abstentions and one invalid vote.

Erhard needed 250 votes to win. His Christian Democrats were joined by their partners in the coalition government, the Free Democrats. The Socialists voted against him.

The chancellor will go before the Bundestag later today to take the oath of office. He will present his new Cabinet to President Heinrich Lübke Thursday.

Erhard has been economics minister throughout Adenauer's tenure as West Germany's only chancellor since the Federal Republic was created in 1949.

Weapons Orbit Pact Gets Full UN Approval

By FRED COLEMAN
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A resolution outlawing the orbiting of nuclear weapons in outer space was approved unanimously today by the General Assembly's main political committee.

The proposal — sponsored by the United States, the Soviet Union and 15 other countries — now goes to the 111-nation assembly itself where approval is expected Thursday.

While the U.N. action is not legally binding, it is regarded as a moral obligation since the United States and the Soviet Union drafted the plan and voted for it.

Actually it is in the form of an appeal to all countries to refrain from placing in orbit objects carrying nuclear weapons or any weapons of mass destruction, or from installing such weapons in outer space in any manner.

The resolution, first tangible cold war breakthrough since the limited nuclear testban treaty, stems from an agreement announced Oct. 3 after talks here by Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home.

The United States and the Soviet Union have conceded that the advantage of orbiting nuclear weapons in space is more psychological than military.

Introduction of the resolution highlighted the opening of the committee's disarmament debate Tuesday.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson told the committee his country hopes to include underground nuclear tests in a comprehensive treaty provided that adequate verification and on-site inspection is guaranteed. He challenged the Russians to spell out what scientific machinery they will accept to assure such verification.

Objectives of Kiwanis Outlined

The idea of service and the following through of this idea, to promote, to provide, to cooperate in human and spiritual endeavors, had made Kiwanis great throughout our nation and world, Mr. Jones pointed out.

Kiwanis International, through youth activity alone, has spent countless of millions of dollars, and right here locally much has been accomplished over the 35-year span of the Hope club, said Mr. Jones.

Guests included: Paul Klipsch, Perry Moses and Dick Ford, the later of Ardmore, Okla.

Close Vote in Korean Election

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — A spokesman of ex-president Yun Po-sun's Civil Rule party virtually conceded election of military strongman Gen. Chung Hee Park as president today.

Yun himself went into hiding Tuesday after the balloting.

The party's spokesman, Kim Yung-sam, said in an informal statement: "We apologize to the people who fought to the end despite various bad laws and other obstacles in this election."

Meanwhile, a spokesman of Park's Democratic Republic party issued a brief statement saying: "The presidential election battle is over. We all should let bygones be bygones and be united in our work at building the Third Republic."

While neither party made any flat statement of concession or victory, unofficial counts gave Park nearly a 100,000-vote lead.

Tabulations by South Korea's government-run radio network gave Park 4,71,300 votes to 4,379,108 for Yun.

But votes for three minor anti-government candidates totaled 780,201, demonstrating that a majority of South Korea's voters oppose Park's military-dominated regime.

In earlier returns, the lead shifted back and forth between Park and Yun.

Yun, 67, candidate of the Civil Rule party and slashing critic of Park's military regime, went into hiding as the ballots were counted. He obviously feared Park's military backers would arrest him.

It seemed apparent that the final tabulation would not end the fierce struggle between the military leaders who have ruled Korea for 29 months and the civilian politicians they displaced in the May 16, 1961, coup.

The losing side was sure to think the winner had not received sufficient mandate to rule unchanged.

The race was close from the time the vote counting began Tuesday. No one appeared more surprised than Yun's supporters.

Many had thought Park, 46, would easily win a four-year term and go on to form a government-oriented national assembly in elections Nov. 26.

Park went into the election against the advice of advisers who counseled a crackdown on the civilian opposition. He appeared to have hopes of a landslide victory endorsing his record as chief of the military junta.

The election showed that Park had lost much of the popular support he had when he seized power.

Segregation Issue Rips Nat'l Guard

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—A presidential committee set up to act against racial discrimination in the armed services is shaping its final report and National Guard sources say they expect the guard to be "raked over the coals."

There are reports — denied by committee officials — that the group may recommend withholding funds from any state which refuses to end segregation in its guard units.

If this happens, the much-buffed President's Committee on Equal Opportunity in the Armed Forces likely will suffer new hammering from Southern members of Congress and Dixie governors.

The guard is segregated in most of the states of the old Confederacy.

The presidential committee, headed by Washington lawyer Gerhard A. Gesell, submitted an initial report June 13 recommending many measures to eliminate discrimination against Negro servicemen in areas around military bases.

The seven-man committee told Kennedy bias in the reserve and National Guard had been under intensive study. It promised a follow-up report on this problem would be completed soon.

Sources close to National Guard affairs said they understood that report was expected by Sept. 1. Some sources suggested the White House might have passed the word to hold up the politically touchy document and perhaps tone it down.

Repeated attempts to reach Gesell were fruitless. An aide in his law office told a reporter Gesell "does not grant interviews."

An official connected with the presidential committee denied the group had been pointing toward Sept. 1. He said the members hoped to have the report ready by the end of the year.

This official said the committee had not reached a consensus. This could indicate a split on how severely to deal with the guard in the final recommendations.

In its June 13 recommendations covering the regular services the committee called for much more stringent measures than Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara finally ordered.

Among other things, McNamara rejected a proposal that if all efforts at persuasion should fail the services should consider closing bases "near communities where discrimination is particularly prevalent."

Nonetheless, McNamara has drawn heavy fire from Southern senators and House members for actions taken to carry out an equal opportunity program he ordered July 26 after considering the Gesell report.

State governors are jealous of their rights and prerogatives in controlling the National Guard within their states. The Defense Department recognizes the guard as "an organization of volunteers under the command of the respective governors."

several weeks was available. But the Wabash Valley Association in Indiana said that drought damage in southern Indiana and southeastern Illinois alone may total between $35 million and $50 million.

There appeared no immediate, general break in the long, dry, mild spell across much of the eastern half of the country. Record high temperatures have been set in scores of cities in the first half of October, with readings in the 90s and upper 80s.

However, some heavy thunderstorms erupted in the Central Plains and Mississippi Valley. Thunderstorms accompanied by lightning struck West Central Kansas with the first rain of consequence since Sept. 2. A four-hour storm which dumped 2.55 inches of rain on Hutchinson.

In the Southeast, 1.02 inches were recorded during a six-hour period in Miami, Fla. Thunderstorms also fell on many other parts of Florida.

Hundreds of fires have burned thousands of acres of forestland in more than a dozen states. New York state's vast and valuable forestlands appeared hardest hit. But fires also spread across other areas in the Northeast, including Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Vermont and New Hampshire.

Flames also whipped through wooded areas in West Virginia, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Kentucky, Tennessee and Texas.

Hundreds of volunteers joined firemen in fighting the fires.

In Michigan, Gov. George Romney's ban on fires in forests, fields and woodlands goes into effect today, the first such statewide order in 17 years. Fire danger was rated very high, and "explosive" in a few areas.

In Pennsylvania, Gov. William W. Scranton banned smoking and campfires in state forests. Nearly 200 forest fires have been

Algerians Storm Into Barracks

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

ALGIERS (AP) — Thousands of Algerians streamed into army barracks today in answer to President Ahmed Ben Bella's general mobilization decree to meet the threat of war with Morocco.

The mobilization decree was issued Tuesday night after more fighting in the disputed outposts after two days of bloody skirmishes.

Ben Bella ordered all former soldiers — estimated to total 30,000 — to report for army service. At the same time efforts continued to negotiate a settlement of the dispute.

Those who answered the mobilization call included numerous young volunteers carried away by the officially whipped war fever. Many were clearly too young ever to have fought against the French.

Algerian sources said Ben Bella's call to arms was answered "with spontaneous enthusiasm." Several thousand men reported at the former French Orleans barracks in Algiers.

Despite the atmosphere of crisis, it seemed unlikely that the governments would allow the dispute to degenerate into war.

Mohammed Yazid, former Algerian information minister, and Slimane Hoffman, an aide of Defense Minister Col. Houari Boumedienne, flew back to Algiers Tuesday night after a day of talks in Marrakech with King Hassan II of Morocco and other Moroccan leaders.

The two emissaries immediately went into conference with Ben Bella. They took off again at dawn to resume their talks in Marrakech.

There was no official word on the negotiations, but informed sources said little real progress had been made.

Reports from the Sahara said fighting had subsided.

bill. It could, deftly handled, get the votes to make it a law by the end of the year.

Swollen with the subcommittee's innovations, it might scare away the most dedicated civil rights supporters, Kennedy said. His views reportedly were bitterly received by a few liberal Democrats who thought they knew Robert Kennedy well enough to think he'd be delighted by an all-out civil rights package that would widen his authority in virtually every field of American business and public life.

But these powers, Kennedy felt it be known, would be more than he or any man in the United States should want to possess. They could, he believed, lead eventually to a national police force.

It has been four months since the House committee got the bill and it still hasn't turned it loose. It must journey through the Rules Committee to the House floor, to a Senate committee, to the Senate floor, through conference and then through compromise before it has run its course.

Suicide Stirs Viet Nam's Uneasy Peace

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—An ailing woman burned herself to death in a Saigon apartment over the weekend and a man attempted to commit suicide by fire in a public market but was stopped by police, official sources reported today.
Police said the woman's suicide apparently had no political motive. She was identified as Truong Thi Dieu, about 60, a former school teacher. They said she had been in poor health. Earlier, police said she had made previous attempts at suicide.
Police sources said a man whom they did not identify tried to set fire to his gasoline-soaked clothing Sunday at the An Dong market in the Chinese section of Saigon.
Tension in Saigon mounted, and reports of new political arrests continued. Security officials believe the coming visit of a U.N. investigation team will spark demonstrations and violence throughout the country. The U.N. team is to investigate charges that the government has persecuted Buddhists.

George Wright were third, and Mrs. Taylor Stuart and Mrs. John Hatley, fourth.

DOROTHY DIX

WHEN GIVING BECOMES A BURDEN

By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: My husband and I are striving for the impossible: a college education for two; a house of our own and pay for our food, clothes and rent—all on $251 a month. That sum represents his salary for a part time office job. At present, being laid off, I earn nothing. But this gives me time to wash, cook, market, keep house and attend college with my husband. We're usually broke but that isn't our problem and we're happy, even though realizing that we should not have married so young.
Our real problem is the constant exchanging of gifts. Both our fathers are mill workers and have the erroneous idea that, being in the so-called "white collar" group, we must also be in the higher income bracket. Counting our parents, brothers and sisters, there are 10 relatives who expect a $5 gift each birthday, Mother's and Father's Day, Christmas, Valentine's Day and Easter. To do this we must borrow from our savings. Now with four birthdays coming up this month, I am at my wits' end.
How can we call a halt on giving except at graduation and weddings, without hurt feelings?
—Broke
Dear Broke: You and your husband vowed on your wedding day to dedicate your lives to one another. From your letter it appears that you have done a great deal of growing up in recent months. Acting in a manner contrary to that which your family expects will be a further step toward the independence you need to achieve. Both families should be proud of you two for what you are trying to do. Don't let your budget fall apart for such a superficial reason as gift-giving.
Since you and your husband obviously have a sense of values, why not educate your family in this respect? Use your imagination and show your parents, brothers and sisters what presents really can mean by replacing the expected with ingenious small gifts, fine, home-made presents or sincerely expressed sentiments? Who knows? They may be just waiting for someone to break up this vicious circle.
Dear Helen: I have lived 28 years with one woman, my wife. The first 12 years were normal, happy ones but ever since she started dating other men it has been a different story. I just found this out by chance. If she ever hopes to make it to Heaven, don't you think she'll have to confess to me and God? As things are, I could never go back on her terms. What is your theory about two-timing wives? I want to do what is right but there must be a right start. —Born to Lose
Dear Born to Lose: I believe that no married person should be unfaithful, but I also believe that married people should not give their partners reason to be so miserable that they seek affection outside it is possible that in not believing your wife, you are believing someone who is lying? Don't expect her to confess to something that may not be true. Once absolutely convinced she has been untrue, and without cause from you, proceed as your conscience dictates. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Successful Marriage"; it may help you decide.
Dear Helen: I am an elderly but active woman who would like to find something new and interesting to do this coming winter. Any suggestions? I certainly admire your wonderful advice. —A Doer
Dear Doer: Thank you! I am sure your search for new and interesting things will keep you young. Besides investigating what the local YWCA has to offer, you may find inspiration in the local library. The Activities or Hobbies section contains a wealth of fascinating ideas. If enthusiastic about any you find, you may want to share this new interest with one or two people you know, even form a club.

Korea Uses U.S. Cash to Pay Canada

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—South Korea's military regime added a new strain to relations with the United States today by announcing it had purchased $8.3 million in Canadian and Australian grain to ease a food shortage.
The disclosure came on the eve of Tuesday's presidential election in which Gen. Chung Hec Park expects to win an endorsement of his military rule of this nation of 26 million.
Angered by the secret deal, U.S. officials said emphatically there was no food shortage in South Korea and none could be expected this year. They noted the United States only recently gave South Korea 1.1 million tons of grain.
The grain purchase and its disclosure just before the election was regarded as an attempt by the military government to assert its independence of the United States, whose financial help keeps the country alive.

Alcorn Rejects Rockefeller Plan

NEW YORK (AP)—Meade Alcorn, former Republican National Chairman, is reported to have rejected an invitation to be national manager of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's campaign for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination.
Alcorn, who practices law in Hartford, Conn., would not comment on the report. Rockefeller has not announced himself a candidate.

Good luck!

They were nearing the downtown section of Fernanda Beach now, still driving northward, Chief Kresh's headlights glaring in the rear window. Barcello went on:

"At that time Gibbon found a new interest in living. Masters-Stowell hired a new stenographer. She isn't attractive. But Gibbon fell for her. She'd probably never been so flattered by so much masculine attention. He took her out to expensive places and had to borrow in order to keep on impressing her with his free-spending front. He was up to his neck in debt when the girl suddenly broke it off."

"The mother, of course. Gibbon had brought the girl home to meet her and she's been hateful. The girl saw what an impossible situation she was getting into. The split-up must have been humiliating to Gibbon. His three time-payment loans were delinquent. He tried to recoup by betting on the dogs and jai-alai. Of course he lost and got in deeper. He must have been afraid that Masters - Stowell would find it out and fire him. That's when he dipped into the safe and took off."

"One day about two weeks ago, Gibbon showed up at Mrs. Hayward's home. Mrs. Wheeler was upstairs and could hear Mrs. Hayward screaming. Mrs. Wheeler was eavesdropping from the top of the stairs because she was afraid something violent might happen, but then Gibbon seemed to get Mrs. Hayward calmed down and they began whispering together like conspirators. When Gibbon was leaving, and outside the entrance, Mrs. Wheeler was at her bedroom window. She heard Gibbon say, 'Just remember, the best way is to play it quiet

Bobcats Hold Commanding District Lead

The Hope Bobcats have taken over a commanding lead in Div. 4AA football both record wise and statistical wise. The Bobcats are 3-0 in league play and lead the seven team loop in total points scored, net yards rushing, total offense, and defense against rushing.

In three conference games and three non-loop games the Hope team has scored a total of 143 points, rushed for 1,300 yards, a total offense of 1,652 yards, and yielded only 607 yards rushing to the opponent. Only Texarkana in their opening game made more than 100 yards rushing against the Cats.

What remains ahead for the Bobcats. This week they face the defending champion Fairview Cardinals at Camden. The Cardinals upset the Bobcats 7-0 last year to help knock the Cats out of the title picture. After this week Hope faces Magnolia and Camden.

Hope has three players in the top individual scoring list. Mac McLarty, Ray McDowell, and Johnny Samuels each have four touchdowns. Ted Roberts of Smackover still leads the league with 34 points, followed closely by Tommy Carroll, Magnolia with 33 points.

In results last week: Hope defeated Crossett 31-0. Malvern downed Camden 7-0. Non-league action found Fairview defeating Arkadelphia 19-13. Magnolia lost to DeQueen 25-19, and Smackover lost to Warren 31-13.

Other games this week in conference action will send Camden to Crossett. Non-league play finds Magnolia entertaining Haynesville. La. Smackover host to Arkadelphia, and Malvern host to Conway.

Smackover, Magnolia, and Fairview each with one league loss still are in the running for title consideration but not as long as the Bobcats roll along undefeated.

The Standings: (league games only)

Hope Bobcats	3	0
Smackover Bucks	2	1
Magnolia Panthers	2	1
Fairview Cardinals	1	1
Malvern Leopards	2	2

Heavyweight Dies From Injuries

BALTIMORE (AP) — Heavyweight boxer Ernie Knox died in a Baltimore hospital today, a day and a half after he battled for a $250 purse.

Doctors said a blood clot on the brain killed him, and even had he lived he would have been partly crippled. Knox died at Provident Hospital at 6 a.m.

He was knocked out in the ninth round of his fight with Wayne Bethea of New York Monday night.

Knox, floored for a nine-count earlier in the round, lay stretched out on the ring canvas for nearly 10 minutes after a volley of Bethea punches sent him there at 1:15 of the round.

The 26-year-old Baltimorean was carried from the ring and later sent to the hospital.

At the hospital Knox seemed all right. But early Tuesday morning he lost consciousness. An emergency operation removed a blood clot from his brain.

The loss was the fighter's sixth in 19 bouts. He won 10 and drew three.

His last one, before the Bethea fight, was nine months ago when he licked Jim Robinson in Reading, Pa.

In between his scattered bouts he sometimes worked as a hood carrier. He was collecting unemployment insurance when he stepped into the ring at the Coliseum to face Bethea.

Detroit Leads Total Defense

NEW YORK (AP) — Detroit leads the National Football League in total defense and pass defense but the Green Bay Packers are tops in one most important statistic—most opponent fumbles recovered.

The Packers, winners of four in a row since dropping the opener to the Bears, have recovered 12 of 13 fumbles by the opposition.

The Lions have held opponents to 1,148 yards, including 506 from passes.

St. Louis shows the way in total offense with 2,056 yards, including a pacesetter 1,214 yards on passing. Cleveland's running game is the best, thanks to Jimmy Brown, who accounts for 787 of their 1,042 yards rushing, according to league statistics released today.

Coaches Have Language All Their Own

By BILL SIMMONS
Associated Press Staff Writer

You might be surprised to know that football coaches speak a language all their own. And though they use common English terms, the words have a unique meaning when coming from a coach.

Having talked with coaches off and on the last several years, we think we've come to an understanding of the language.

So, for the benefit of the less-informed, here are some excerpts from various interviews with coaches, and, in view of later happenings, the translations.

Question — Coach, you open your season next week. How's the team shaping up?

Coach — Oh, my gosh. Is next week the week? I thought we had another month—that's what we need!

Translation — I think we'll go unbeaten.

Question — Coach, frequent fumbles high lost 30-0 last week. Their top two linemen and top three backs all suffered broken legs in that one. Pretty easy game for you this weekend against FFH, huh?

Coach — I wouldn't say that. We're having problems with Turk, and Dynamo hasn't been feeling well, and you never know what to expect out of FFH. I'm worried. Real worried!

Translation — Yeah.

Question — You won your first two games by an aggregate score of 112-6. You held the other teams to a total yardage of 13. Which is best, your line or your backfield?

Coach — They're about equally inexperienced, both are slow, no size, no depth on either one.

Translation — They're both so good we take turns — on every other play the halfbacks play tackle and the tackles play halfback.

Question — People are calling Tank the best back in the league. Any comment?

Coach — He'll be all right in time, if he works, but, gosh, he's got a lot to learn! He's hurt, too. Hand injury. May need an operation. Even if he was the best back, it looks like he won't do us much good the rest of the year. Woe is me!

Translation — He's the best, but he's being hampered by a hand nail.

Question — How much does he really weigh?

Coach — He's puny.

Translation — Only 230 pounds.

Question — Pretty quick, too, isn't he?

Coach — My youngest boy can outrun him, backwards.

Translation — He runs the 100-yard dash in 9.9 seconds.

Question — Looks like a title game tomorrow night between your team and Tedious Tech, right?

Coach — That's a new one on me. Let me hear it.

Translation — You aren't kidding!

Question — I guess the team is pretty high for this one, huh?

Coach — They looked so bad last week I'm afraid they won't show up for the game. On second thought, that might be best.

Translation — We're rarin' to go!

Question — Coach, we're picking your team as the best in the state, even though you're playing unbeaten Muddy A&M tomorrow.

Coach — XXM'RP's!

Translation — (censored!)

Question — Coach, you went 10-0 and won the conference title. It's your fifth straight championship. What sets a winning coach off from, say, a coach of a last place team. How do you do it?

Coach — The boys deserve the credit. They did the work.

Appleton of TU Gets the Good Marks

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Texas tackle Scott Appleton, selected by Longhorn Coach Darrell Royal as the outstanding All-American candidate on the nation's top-ranked football team, was named Lineman of the Week today by The Associated Press.

The 21-year-old senior and team co-captain looked every inch an All-American last Saturday as he defeated Texas' 10-0 to its fourth straight triumph with a devastating 28-7 victory over Oklahoma.

Playing both ways, Appleton made or assisted on 16 tackles. He led the first scoring drive at offensive tackle and set up the third touchdown by knocking Oklahoma quarterback Bobby Page loose from the ball, recovering it on the Sooners' 18-yard line.

Virginia center Turnley Todd, Minnesota tackle Carl Eller and Illinois linebacker Dick Butkus also received high praise in the poll of sports writers and broadcasters.

Todd made seven unassisted tackles in the first half in Virginia's 6-0 triumph over VMI and made a second half interception that stopped a VMI threat at Virginia's 30.

Butkus made or assisted on 23 tackles in a 20-2 tie with Ohio State. He set up Illinois' first touchdown with a pass interception.

Eller twice threw Northwestern quarterback Tommy Myers for long losses and recovered a Myers' fumble to blunt a Northwestern bid in the third quarter.

Translation — I think we'll go unbeaten.

Question — Coach, frequent fumbles high lost 30-0 last week. Their top two linemen and top three backs all suffered broken legs in that one. Pretty easy game for you this weekend against FFH, huh?

Coach — I wouldn't say that. We're having problems with Turk, and Dynamo hasn't been feeling well, and you never know what to expect out of FFH. I'm worried. Real worried!

Translation — Yeah.

Question — You won your first two games by an aggregate score of 112-6. You held the other teams to a total yardage of 13. Which is best, your line or your backfield?

Coach — They're about equally inexperienced, both are slow, no size, no depth on either one.

Translation — They're both so good we take turns — on every other play the halfbacks play tackle and the tackles play halfback.

Question — People are calling Tank the best back in the league. Any comment?

Coach — He'll be all right in time, if he works, but, gosh, he's got a lot to learn! He's hurt, too. Hand injury. May need an operation. Even if he was the best back, it looks like he won't do us much good the rest of the year. Woe is me!

Translation — He's the best, but he's being hampered by a hand nail.

Question — How much does he really weigh?

Coach — He's puny.

Translation — Only 230 pounds.

Question — Pretty quick, too, isn't he?

Coach — My youngest boy can outrun him, backwards.

Translation — He runs the 100-yard dash in 9.9 seconds.

Houk Named AL Manager of the Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Ralph Houk, who guided the New York Yankees to the American League pennant in 1963 despite injuries to star outfielders Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris, was an overwhelming choice as the American League Manager of the Year today.

In the balloting by 71 baseball writers in the annual Associated Press poll, Houk received 58 votes. Al Lopez, pilot of the second-place Chicago White Sox, was the runner-up with 6 votes.

The voting was based on the regular season performances.

Houk, the Yanks' leader since 1961 when he replaced Casey Stengel, had his most difficult assignment the past season after Mantle suffered a broken bone in his left foot while chasing a fly ball in Baltimore June 5.

At the time the Yanks were tied for first place with the Orioles and White Sox. Houk moved Tom Tresh from left field to Mantle's position in center and also got considerable mileage out of John Blanchard, Maris' replacement in right field.

Mantle, who was out of the regular line-up for almost three months, played in only 65 games. Despite this, the Yanks won the pennant by 10½ games.

Translation — I think we'll go unbeaten.

Broyles Will Start Soph Quarterback

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Coach Frank Broyles picked his youngest quarterback Tuesday to start against the Texas Longhorns in Little Rock Saturday night.

Sophomore Jon Brittenum, the best runner among Arkansas' four field generals, drew the job against the Longhorns, the No. 1 team in the nation.

The indication was that Broyles was calling on Brittenum to rejuvenate the impotent Porker offense against the league's best defense.

Wingback George Walker apparently will miss the Texas game because of a knee injury, and linebacker Tommy Brasher may be out for the season because of a knee injury. Brasher was hurt in pre-season practice and the knee resists healing.

Translation — I think we'll go unbeaten.

Thinks Porks Will Win Out Over Texas

HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — A normal football season usually is made up of an equal number of hills and valleys. The Texas University team was at the top of the hill last week when it defeated Oklahoma and took over the honor of being rated the nation's No. 1 college team.

Arkansas was down in the valley, dropping its second of the season. The defeat this time was by Baylor and the two setbacks were by a total of five points.

This Saturday Arkansas gets revenge.

That's this week's blue-plate special. Last week's menu almost was devoid of attractions with 34 correct picks and 15 losers for .694. That dropped the season's totals to 143-37 for .715.

Other selections for the coming weekend:

Wisconsin over Iowa: Hal Brandt of the Badgers may not outpitch Fred Riddle of Iowa, but the Wisconsin star will get more help from his teammates.

Pittsburgh over West Virginia: The West Virginians too big for their own good.

Mississippi over Tulane: Tulane has been shut out in three of four games this season while Mississippi's potent defense has held three opponents to only 13 points.

Oklahoma over Kansas: The disorganized Sooners pull themselves together.

Illinois over Minnesota: The surprising Illini display their talents at homecoming.

Georgia Tech over Auburn: Billy Holtridge of the Engineers can run, pass and kick.

Alabama over Tennessee: Both teams were disappointed last weekend but Alabama will recover more quickly.

Navy over Virginia Military: This game features the Oyster Bowl at Norfolk and Roger Staubach is the prize pearl of the Middles.

Northwestern over Miami of Ohio: Tommy Myers finds the range.

Air Force over Maryland: Terry Isaacson is the difference in an aerial battle.

Baylor over Texas Tech: Coach John Brighers has his pro-style offense clicking.

Duke over Clemson: Duke has found a passer, Scotty Glacken.

Syracuse over Penn State: They'll need a mile of bandages after this bruiser. A hesitant nod to the home team with its power backfield.

Translation — I think we'll go unbeaten.
